VOL. IX.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA. TUESDAY, JULY 27, 1880.

NO. 100.

Population of Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, July 23.
J. W. Haverstick, Supervisor of the Census of the Fourth District, reports the population of this city at 11,183, including 804 Chinese. The population of the county is 33,392, including 1,155 Chinese. The city has fallen behind some, but the county has gained considerably since the census of 1870. The increase in the city has been 48.97 per cent., and the increase in the county during the same time has been 54.15 per cent., making an average per centage of 51.7 per cent. in favor of the county. Many old residents of the city and a considerable proportion of the Chinese have gone to Arizona.

The Last Novelty in Dancing.

From the Courier-Journal.
For the first time I saw the new dance about which so much has been written. It is certainly the maddest and most ungraceful whirl I ever saw. The embrace is close, for the dancers need the strongest support from each other; while they give a sideways kick out with both feet, at the same time the body bends with a low dip. The lady's sash ends and frills and the coat tails of the gentlemen fly about in all sorts of odd, fantastic forms. The time and motion of the music and steps must satisfy the fastest and giddiest of our young people. It is a parlor substitute for the can-can.

The Venerable New Boarder.

From the Lockport Journal.
It was dinner time in a select boarding house when the new boarder arrived. He was a venerable-looking gentleman, with silver hair, and his face beamed with a sweet repose, betokening a pure and holy life. As he joined the table the landlady said: "Would you ask a blessing sir?" The venerable stranger shouted: "You'll have to talk louder, marm, I'm so deaf."

William Pennix was the jolliest fellow in Lynn county, Ind. He died and sang at the country gatherings, rode recklessly in horse races, and was seemingly incapable of serious thought. Miss Bundy shared in the general estimate of his character, and laughed when he attempted courtship. He declared that for once he was in earnest, but he would not listen. The dead bodies of both were found in the road a few days ago. Pennix had proved his sincerity by murder and suicide.

The depravity of this peculiar people is almost devilish, says the Salt Lake Tribune. But a short time since several of the young sisters of Zion were united in the holy bonds of matrimony with sons of Africa's shore, black as the ace of spades.

THE DISLOYAL DEMOCRATS RESPONSIBLE.

The Republic of the United States has gained an honorable distinction among the nations of the earth by steadily paying off its national debt. The tax-payers of the country are paying off this debt. These tax-payers are mostly voters. It is well for them to bear in mind how that debt originated. They can thank the Democratic party for the burden of the immense public debt of the United States. They will soon be called upon again to choose between the Democratic party which created that debt, and the Republican party which has ever since made every effort to have it honorably paid.

General Garfield made a strong statement of the Democratic responsibility for the National debt, in a speech delivered in the House in 1870, in response to some remarks from an Indiana Copperhead. The following is an extract from General Garfield's speech on that occasion:

"I desire to ask that gentleman and his party one question. Suppose that in the year 1861 every Democrat north of the Potomac and the Ohio had followed the lead of Grant, and Douglas and Dickinson, and Tilden, and all the other great lights of the Democratic party; had thrown away the Democratic name; had said that they would be Democrats no longer, but all would be Union men, and stand together around the flag until the rebellion had been put down under our feet. I desire to ask the gentlemen, if these things had happened, how long the war would have lasted, and how much the war would have cost? I do not hesitate to say that it would not have lasted a month, and that the expenditure of the war would not have exceeded $10,000,000. I say as a matter of current history, that it was the great hope of the rebels of the South that the assistance of the Democratic party of the North would divide our forces and overcome all our efforts; that at the ballot-box the Democrats at home would help the cause which they were maintaining in the field. It was that, and that alone, which protracted the war and created our immense debt. I come, therefore, to the door of your party, gentlemen, on the other side, and I lay down at your threshold every dollar of the debt, every expression of the great cost of the war, and I say if you had followed Douglas there would have been no debt, no blood, no burden."

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

The Atlantic Monthly continues to hold its place as one of the best and brightest of periodicals. Among the contents of the July number are many articles of particular interest. The following is the table: "The Still-water Tragedy," by Thomas Bailey Aldrich; "The Saffron Fly," Rose Terry Cooke; "Incidents of the Capture of Richmond," George F. Shepley; "Brown's Retreat," Anna Eichler; "Passing," Alice Williams Brotherton; "Wintering on Etna," S. P. Langley; "Unfulfillment," Francis Louisa Bushnell; "A French Comic Dramatist," F. Brander Matthews; "Confederation in Canada," Frederic G. Mather; "Reminiscences of Washington," "Records of W. M. Hunt," Henry C. Angell; "The Undiscovered Country," W. D. Howells; "King Lear," Richard Grant White; "Some Recent Novels," "American Colonial History," "Scherer's Diderot," "Literature for Schools," "Mind in the Lower Animals," "The Contributors' Club."

AN IMPORTANT EVENT.

The visit of Secretary Schurz promises to be of importance to this county. He manifested a great deal of interest in all matters pertaining to the reservation and how it affects our people. He catches the important points of any question instantly, and his trip gives him a great deal of information that could be gotten in no other way. He has ordered a careful survey of the reservation, and that will be of service to those who have business in that neighborhood. He is very approachable and converses freely upon all subjects. In the matter of the suits against trespassers he would be entirely reasonable, and if those who have been prosecuted would take the advice we have always given them, and represent the case just as it is to him, we believe no fine or punishment would be inflicted. But when lawyers can make five hundred dollar fees by getting poor guileless to fight the United States, what has common sense to do with it?

THE CHARGE OF CORRUPTION.

The Congressional Committee on Appropriations, while General Garfield presided over its deliberations as Chairman, voted, for a great variety of purposes, over $1,000,000,000.

There can be no doubt that a corrupt man, as Chairman of that Committee, could have put millions of dollars in his pocket, by the sale of his influence.

Gen. Garfield's total property today is valued at about $29,000, on which he owes $5,000. Everybody knows that he is comparatively a poor man.

And yet his political slanderers say that he is corrupt.

Had Gen. Garfield been corrupt, he would now be rolling in wealth. The charge of corruption will not stick against a man who, with such magnificent opportunities, remains poor to-day.

WHO OWNS THE CATTLE.

California is disgraced by the fact that Oregon and Nevada supply two-thirds of our beef. What are our farmers about.—S. F. Post.

It is Californians who mostly own the cattle that come from Nevada, and in this state having become too valuable for grain purposes to be devoted to cattle-grazing.—Sacramento Bee.

Reno ships more cattle to California than any other place in Nevada does. All the cattle shipped from Reno last winter were raised by Nevada men and sold to California buyers, who were constantly in this market. The Bee's agricultural editor must be out of town.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"The costume of an English lady of fashion in a ball-room," says an English writer, far more indelicately than that of an Indian squaw.—Ex.

But what is the costume of an Indian squaw in a ball room? The Indian squaws in this region dress as modestly as white squaws, but the Indians never attend in-door balls.

Mrs. M. E. Baker of Wasson, Mono county, Cal., picked a giant powder cap with a pin to see if it contained and explosive substance. The Homer Mining Index says that she "will probably save the stamps of her fingers, but her hands are maimed for life."

And now Carson is putting on airs because George Hill, of the Carson Bank, is related to the coming President. Mr. Hill's grandfather's sister, Asenath Hill, was the wife of General Garfield's paternal grandfather.

Every now and then a paragraph about "How to tell a horse's age" turns up in the papers. How to keep a horse's age to one's self is what most people who deal in horses already know.

SHOOTING IN NEVADA CITY.

An Ex-Sheriff Kills a Business Man.

NEVADA CITY, July 26.—At a quarter past 10 o'clock this morning Geo. W. Smith, ex-Sheriff of Nevada county, rushed up to L. W. Signorey, a capitalist on Broad street in front of the National Hotel, and, grasping his hand, exclaimed:

"How are you, Sig?"

"How do you do?" responded the accosted.

"You've commenced suit against me to rob me, have you?" continued Smith.

"No; I am not going to rob you."

"Well, G—d—d—a you, you can't rob me!" replied Smith.

As he uttered the last sentence Smith drew a revolver and fired twice at Signorey. One of the balls took effect in Signorey's right shoulder and the other crashed through a window of the Eureka Stage Company's office. The wounded man turned to run away, and just as he was entering the postoffice door Smith placed the weapon close to his back, below the right shoulder blade, and fired a third time, the bullet going clear through the body diagonally. Signorey staggered into the postoffice, and leaning against the wall, exclaimed: "Oh, God! I am shot all over!" He was assisted into the National Hotel, where he died two minutes later.

Smith was arrested and taken to the county jail. The cause of the shooting was a suit just begun in the Superior Court by the deceased to eject Smith and his family from a house belonging to him, and to recover $1,000 damages.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Population of White Pine county, 3,203, including 103 Chinese and 810 Indians. This county is nearly 100 miles square.

Among the fish of the southern coast of California are the mackerel, surf-fish, barracouta, the red and the black rock-cod, the red-fish, Jew-fish and sea trout.

John Basset was driving to his home near Susanville, last week, when the lightning struck a tree near by, and the shock was sufficient to knock down one of the horses and prostrate him in the wagon.

On the Fourth of July a little boy living with his parents at Redwood city swallowed a screw about five-eighths of an inch in length. The screw stuck in his windpipe, and the little fellow died in eight minutes.

In Candelaria barber shops are posted notices to the effect that $1 per week will be charged for the privilege of washing one's face and hands, which is considered a fair and reasonable price.

There is much complaining among the business men of Gold Hill about the number of mutilated silver coins in circulation. These coins are not old and worn, but comparatively recent droppings from the mint and have been clipped in that vicinity.

Mrs. O. W. Wilson and Miss McGahey of Newcastle were taking a drive recently when their horse was stung by a bee, and plunged down a bank ten feet high. Mrs. Wilson sprang out in time; Miss McGahey went over, but escaped with slight injuries. The horse was killed and the buggy badly broken.

A man named Smith was shot Saturday afternoon at Williams by the accidental discharge of his revolver. He, with his wife and daughter and Mrs. Church of Rio Vista, were camped on the roadside, six miles west of town, and he removed the revolver from his hip pocket, when it was discharged, inflicting a severe wound above the ankle.

The Sun Cholera Medicine.

From the Journal of Commerce.

More than twenty years ago, when it was found that prevention of cholera was easier than cure, a prescription drawn up by eminent doctors was published in the Sun, and it took the name of the Sun cholera medicine.

Our contemporary never lent its name to a better article. We have seen it in constant use for nearly two score years, and found it to be the best remedy for looseness of the bowels ever yet devised.

No one who has this by him, and takes it in time, will ever have the cholera.

We commend it to all our friends. Even when cholera is anticipated, it is an excellent remedy for ordinary summer complaints, colic, diarrhoea, dysentery, etc.

Take equal parts of tincture of Cayenne pepper, tincture of opium, tincture of rhubarb, essence of peppermint, and spirits of camphor. Mix well. Dose, 15 to 30 drops in a little cold water, according to age and violence of symptoms, repeated every fifteen or twenty minutes until relief is obtained.

Another Sink in the C. P. Railroad Track.

The Bulletin says: Last Saturday morning there was a cave in the track of the Central Pacific Railway between Susan and Benic, at a point five miles west of the former place. Two hundred feet of the track settled to a depth of between two and three feet, rendering the road impassable to trains. During Saturday and a portion of yesterday trains were sent around by Martinez or Vallejo. A track has been built around the sunken portion, and trains are now running as usual.

Stage Robbery in Yuba.

WHEATLAND, July 26th.—The Spencer, Wheatland and Wheatland stage was stopped this morning about half a mile this side of the Empire ranch by a masked man with a double-barreled shotgun. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s treasure box was undisturbed, owing to it being chained to the stage. The mail bags were also undisturbed. There were two passengers aboard at the time. One ran away and the other was robbed of what money he had on his person. The officers are in pursuit of the robber.

Death by a Bee Sting.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, July 8.—George Byran, residing in Blackhawk county, was stung by a bee on the back of the neck a day or two since, and became violently ill immediately with a dizziness and loss of sight. Death ensued in half an hour. The post-mortem examination showed that death resulted from paralysis of the heart, caused by poison from the sting.

The Fastest Trotter in the World.

CINCINNATI, July 26th.—Captain Stone, manager of Maud S., says he is confident she could have beaten St. Julien's time if she had not been slowed up in Chicago to save Trickett's distance. He is confident she can trot in 2:10, and says by the record of 2:13 on her second appearance in public, she holds the place of the best trotter in the world. She trots in Cleveland on Wednesday.

A man threw his gun across his shoulder at Pineville, Indian Territory, and said he was going hunting. His way led past a neighbor's house, on the porch of which some children were playing. He took quick aim at a little girl, and fired, killing her instantly. The only explanation he can give for the deed is that he felt an irresistible impulse to do it.

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

In reference to the statement that pocket handkerchief dresses had become fashionable in English society, it is suggested that it is too true, and that some of the dresses do not afford much more covering than two or three handkerchiefs would.

Jose Maria Salazar saw a young girl in an Arizona mining camp, fell madly in love with her, and within three hours asked her to marry him. She declined, and he killed her on the spot. Retribution was as speedy as his courtship had been, for he was at once hanged by the miners.

The manufacture of sporting implements has assumed large proportions in this country. It is estimated that from 50,000 to 60,000 sets of croquet, 200,000 base ball bats, and 250,000 base balls will be made for this season's trade by a single firm in Chicago.

Near Eugene City, July 18th, two children aged seven and nine years, son and daughter of John Gilbert, a farmer on the McKenzie, were drowned. The boy first fell in, and the little girl, in attempting to rescue her brother, slipped off the rock she was standing on and perished in the attempt. This makes three deaths in one week from drowning in that vicinity.

Laura Markle, of Kingston, N. Y., betook herself to the middle of a stream to avoid the service of a summons. The officer pursued her, and tried to show her the Judge's signature, but Laura declared he was only trying to drown her, and knocked the papers from his hands. They floated down stream and sank, and he had to strip and dive for them. "Sufficient service," quoth the Judge, and the officer doubtless thought it more than sufficient.

Mrs. James Beard, of Rock Island, Ill., got a divorce from her husband, not because she hated him particularly for his shittiness, but she was tired of being the wife of a man she could not respect. Soon after he went to her to find out whether she would take any legal proceedings against him if he married again. She not only gave her consent, but went to the wedding and gave the couple a present of $30.

A man and a woman appeared in a Greco-Roman wrestling match in St. Louis. As everybody would have predicted, each won a fall, and then the woman proved a victor with the third. The struggle was made to look genuine, however, judging by the account: "First one would go to the floor and then the other, but the falls were not fair and they would jump up and clinch with each other again. At last the man caught the woman by the neck, and throwing her over his head, she stretched her full length upon the floor. The judge called it a fair throw, and the two ran off the stage. They reappeared and clinched again, the woman threw the man, but he held his shoulders and knees up and prevented a fair fall, but for all that she held him down, and rolled him over and over, until she, becoming exhausted, let go of him, and he regained his feet. Another tussle followed. The woman, securing a lucky grip of the man, and bending her knee, made him measure his full length on the floor. The judge announced it a fair fall. The third round was a repetition of the second, except that, instead of throwing the man over her hips, the woman grasped him by the neck and threw him over her head."

For Cheap Drugs, Toilet Articles, Patent Medicines, Perfumery, etc., call at Jno. P. Myers' Drug Store, two doors west of the postoffice.

I. Fredrick pays the highest price for old gold.

It is an established fact that Davidson gives the best satisfaction in repairing fine watches and jewelry.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Following is the text of the resolutions adopted by the Republican National Convention on Saturday, June 5, 1880:
Republican rule has restored upon a solid basis peace and order for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and legal, and equal in every particular to the currency of any other country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where four per cent bonds are eagerly sought at a premium. Under its administration railways have increased from 3,000 miles in 1850 to more than 32,000 miles in 1879. Our foreign trade has increased from $70,000,000 to $1,150,000,000 in the same time, and our exports, which were $300,000,000 more than our imports in 1870, without resorting to loans, have increased to $1,000,000,000 more than our imports in 1879. Without resorting to loans it has, since the war closed, discharged the ordinary expenses of government, besides the disbursement actually more than $200,000,000 for soldiers' pensions. It has paid $880,000,000 of the public debt, and by reducing the balance at lower rates, nearly $151,000,000 to less than $200,000,000. All the industries of the country have revived, labor is in demand; wages have increased, and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we have ever enjoyed. Upon this record the Republican party asks for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this convention submits for their approval the following statement of its principles and purposes which will continue to guide and inspire its efforts:

REMEMBRANCE OF PRINCIPLES.
First. We affirm that the work of the last twenty-one years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved through immense difficulties should be preserved. That the peace regained should be maintained. That the disordered Union now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to the generations to follow. That the order established and the credit acquired should never be imperilled. That the positions promised should be maintained. That the much reduced should be extinguished by the full payment of every dollar thereof. That the reviving industries should be further promoted, and that the commerce already so great should be steadily encouraged.
Second. The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law, and the compact. Out of the confederated States it made a sovereign nation. Some powers are reserved to the States, and others are reserved to the States; but the boundary between the power delegated and those reserved is to be determined by national and not by State tribunals.
Third. The work of popular education is one of the most important duties of the Government. It is the duty of the national government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the nation is the basis of the Republic. It is the duty of the Government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability. The intelligence of the nation is the basis of the Republic. It is the duty of the Government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional ability.

NON-SECTARIAN SCHOOLS.
Fourth. The constitutionality forbids Congress to make any law respecting an establishment of religion, but it is to be noted that the nation can be protected against the influence of sectarianism while each State is exposed to its particular domination. We therefore recommend that the constitution be so amended as to give some prohibition upon the Legislature of each State, and to forbid the appropriation of public funds to the support of sectarian schools.
Fifth. We reaffirm the belief avowed in 1876, that the duty of the Government is to protect the public domain from the grasp of the public domain should be reserved to the people, and that no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railroad or other corporation. That slavery laws, perished in the States, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territory. That everywhere the protection accorded to a citizen-American birth must be secured to citizens of American acquisition. That it is the duty of Congress to develop and improve our water-courses and harbors, but we insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease. That the obligations to the men who pre-erred its integrity in the day of battle are diminished by the lapse of a year since their final victory. Their perpetual honor is and shall forever be the grateful privilege and the sacred duty of the American people.

THE CHINESE PLANK.
Sixth. Since the authority to regulate immigration and late-commerce between the United States and foreign nations rests with the Congress of the United States and the treaty-making powers, that the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of the Chinese as an evil of great magnitude, and the cause of the loss of the power to restrict and limit that immigration by the enactment of such laws as may be deemed proper, and that the duty of the Government is to protect the public domain from the grasp of the public domain should be reserved to the people, and that no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railroad or other corporation. That slavery laws, perished in the States, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territory. That everywhere the protection accorded to a citizen-American birth must be secured to citizens of American acquisition. That it is the duty of Congress to develop and improve our water-courses and harbors, but we insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease. That the obligations to the men who pre-erred its integrity in the day of battle are diminished by the lapse of a year since their final victory. Their perpetual honor is and shall forever be the grateful privilege and the sacred duty of the American people.

Sheriff's Sale.
UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF A WRIT of execution issued out of the Second Judicial District Court of Nevada, in and for Washoe County, duly tested the 30th day of July, A. D. 1880, and to me directed and delivered in a judgment recovered by the Reno Gas Company, plaintiff, and against the Reno Savings Bank, a corporation, defendant, wherein there is set forth to be due the said Reno Gas Company from the Reno Savings Bank the sum of thirteen hundred and twenty-five and 40/100 dollars ($1325.40), bearing date, now amounting to the sum of $1365, and interest, I have on this 25th day of July, 1880, levied upon and taken execution on the following described personal property of the above named defendant, to-wit: One (1) Ore Ladder; And I hereby give public notice that I will sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to satisfy the above named writ, to the highest and best bidder for cash, on Friday, the 30th day of July, A. D. 1880, between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M. and 5 o'clock P. M. to wit: at 9 o'clock A. M. of said day, in front of the office of B. F. Lee, in the Odd Fellows' Building in Reno, Nevada.
